

Media Advisory

December 20, 2004

The Peterborough Children's Water Festival is on the World Wide Web!

The Peterborough Children's Water Festival announces its new website, full of information that's bound to make your visit to the 2005 Festival a splash!

Teachers, Volunteers and Festival Sponsors will discover useful resources to support their involvement with the Festival. From planning a class visit, to signing up as an activity center volunteer, to making a donation in support of the PCWF – this new website has it all!

You will want to save this website address as a favorite. Refer to it often for the latest news about Peterborough's best children's water festival!

The 2005 Peterborough Children's Water Festival will be held in May. Registration for students in grades 3 to 6 occurs in April 2005 - please watch the site for further details!